

TELEGRAPHIC

NOON DESPATCHES

THE FRENCH ASSEMBLY—FAPAL DEBATES.
PARIS, July 27.—The Debat censures the Government for siding with the minority of the Assembly, and demands changes in the ministry. It is reported that Thiers has induced his colleague in the Government to remain in office.

ROME, July 27.—The Maranite and Malachite Patriarchate, the Malachite Archbishop of Aleppo, and thirteen Hungarian Archbishops, have forwarded to Rome their submission to the dogma of infallibility.

LONDON, July 27.—Goodwood cup; Shannon, first; Fanorens, second; Mortimer, third. Odds against Shannon heavy.

LONDON, July 28.—Carmagnin, of the Philippine Islands, has been abandoned by its 26,000 inhabitants. The earthquake sinking the land, engulfed 150 persons. This was followed by the volcano firing the woods. Carmagnin produced one-tenth of the whole manilla hemp crop.

PARIS, July 28.—The Journal de Paris says Favre is no longer Minister of Foreign Affairs.

MADRID, July 23.—The new ministry has resolved to put down the Cuban insurrection, regardless of the sacrifice of life and money.

AMERICAN INTELLIGENCE.
NOON DESPATCHES.
GRAIN SHIPMENTS—AMADOR TROUBLES—GOV. HOFFMAN DENOUNCED—EXTENSIVE HAIL STORM—ASSISTANCE TO THE CUBANS—TALLAHASSEE, THE KU KLUX KLAN—NARROW GAUGE—RAILROAD PURCHASE—NEW COTTON IN NEW YORK—LOUISIANA POLITICS, &c.

CLAYTON, July 27.—The stockholders of the Lake Shore Railroad, today, voted $23,814,912 to 86% for the issue of $16,000,000 of new stock, which raises the Lake Shore capital to $50,000,000.

NEW YORK, July 27.—Shipments of grain to Europe in sailing vessels, from January to July, were 14,000,000 bushels. The druggists of this city have held an indignation meeting, and protest against the appointment of a board of examiners.

SALT LAKE CITY, July 27.—Small-pox is prevalent here. Every precaution has been taken to prevent a spread of the contagion. The 24th of July, the anniversary of the entry of the pioneers into this valley, was celebrated throughout the Territory.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 27.—The Backeye shaft of the Amador mine was set on fire by the men of this Miner's League, and extensive damage is anticipated. The Keystone Mine at Sutter Creek has expended work for want of water. The strikers are threatening vengeance on mine owners and officers, and more trouble is feared.

JACKSON, Miss., July 28.—The Macon Beacon, published at the home of Tallaferr, who recently testified before the Outrage Committee, says of him: "The aforesaid Tallaferr is not a planter near this town, and was not a Confederate Captain, either. Waigan say, however, that he was arrested here for stealing a mule, and has several standing jokes against him in the way of unpaid accounts."

NEW YORK, July 28.—A large meeting was held today, which bitterly denounced Governor Hoffman, and resolved to elect the policeman, dismissed for disobedience of orders on the 12th, to some office.

Probabilities—Threats

weather will probably extend to-night Eastward to Michigan and Eastern Pennsylvania. The same is probable for Saturday in the interior of the Southern and Gulf States, and pleasant weather for New England.

BRENNHAM, TEXAS, July 28.—Henry Miller, colored, the murderer of Deboys, in April last, who was convicted by a colored jury, was hung at 1 o'clock today, in this city. 5,000 persons witnessed the execution.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28.—Negotiations recently in progress here, definitely terminated in the purchase, by the Central Pacific Railroad Company, of the California Pacific Railroad line, between Valigo and Sacramento.

NEW YORK, July 28.—The first bale of new crop Texas cotton was sold at auction, today, in front of the Exchange, at forty-three cents.

LOUISVILLE, July 28.—The proposed change of gauge of the Louisville and Cincinnati Short Line Road is postponed till August 13. The narrow gauge rolling stock could not be got from the East sooner. The road will, when the change is made, conform to the gauge of Northern connections, making a through line from Louisville to the Eastern cities without change of cars for freight or passengers.

NEW ORLEANS, July 28.—The election of delegates to the Republican State Convention, which meets here on the 9th of August, is progressing throughout the parishes. Lively encounters occur between the Dunn and Warmouth factions. It is indicated that a bitter struggle will be had over the nominations. A meeting to-night at the Mechanics' Institute will endorse Governor Warmouth and his administration of the State government. Disorders are expected.

Custom house officials assert that receipts during the last month were greater than any preceding June for ten years; while expenses are two per cent. less.

Sampson Bidolph Robinson, instructor in book-keeping and librarian of the Louisiana State University, is dead.

THREATENED BADLY BY HIS BROTHER.—The following scene occurred at a wedding recently, not 1,000 miles from this city. The bridegroom was twenty years of age and the bride fifteen. The happy groom had a younger brother, about sixteen years of age, present at the wedding. The ceremony commenced, and just as the minister asked if any one present knew cause why the couple before him should not be joined together, young Bad commenced to weep loudly and violently. The man of God paused, the young bride prospective blushed and trembled with embarrassment, the bridegroom turned pale and looked confused, the assembled party were consternation struck, and the father of the weeping boy seized him and demanded the cause of his strange conduct. Amid sobs and tears and divers shakes, he blurted out, "Brother has treated me badly. She ought to have been mine; I loved her first, and she loved me before she did him." The old "parient" jerked the weeping, heart-broken boy out of the room, threatening hickories by the dozen; whilst, after some time in restoring equilibrium, the ceremony went on.

THE AMAZONS.—An English surgeon in the service of the Commune writes respecting its last hours as follows: "Just as the Nationals were retreating, a battalion of women came up the street at a trot, and, with cries of 'Vive la Commune,' began firing. They were armed with the Snyder rifle, and fired admirably. Many pretty looking girls were there, destined, no doubt, for far better things than killing men. They fought like devils, far better than the men, and I had the pain of seeing fifty-two shot down even when they had been surrounded by the troops and disarmed. I saw about sixty men shot at the same place as the women, at the same time."

John H. Salmon, of Albemarle County, Va., who was convicted in that County, about a year ago, of the murder of his mother and brother, and sentenced to be hung, was discharged last week under very peculiar circumstances. It seems that a writ of error had been awarded the prisoner by the judge of the circuit court, and a new trial granted. The case was then erroneously retained in the circuit court for trial, and was held over for six months, and then, when too late, was remanded to the County court, where the prisoner, by the action of the circuit court in holding the case for six months, was deprived of his right of trial. In this dilemma, the prisoner's counsel claimed his discharge, and it was granted.

A colored State Senator in Texas, a Republican of course, has recently made several quaint but very sensible speeches to his constituents. He don't like carpet-baggers. "We took them up," he says, "bob-tailed coat, tight pants, little gold-beaded cane and all, and we have fed them long enough out of our own chicken pie." "These little fellows," he added, "are too small to plow and too weak to breed"—a raucous plantation illustration. This is thought by the Newark (New Jersey) Advertiser to prove something as to the independence of the Black vote.

A post office has been established on the Guadalupe route from this place, under the name of Skull Shoals post office, and A. A. Sarraz, appointed postmaster. Union Times.

Work on the Louisiana levee will commence immediately. A full force has been organized to strengthen them in such a manner as to prevent a repetition of the Bonnet Carrre catastrophe.

The all-rail route between Washington and Richmond—the Alexandria and Fredericksburg Railroad—is being pushed forward rapidly.

Probabilities—Threats

weather will probably extend to-night Eastward to Michigan and Eastern Pennsylvania. The same is probable for Saturday in the interior of the Southern and Gulf States, and pleasant weather for New England.

BRENNHAM, TEXAS, July 28.—Henry Miller, colored, the murderer of Deboys, in April last, who was convicted by a colored jury, was hung at 1 o'clock today, in this city. 5,000 persons witnessed the execution.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28.—Negotiations recently in progress here, definitely terminated in the purchase, by the Central Pacific Railroad Company, of the California Pacific Railroad line, between Valigo and Sacramento.

NEW YORK, July 28.—The first bale of new crop Texas cotton was sold at auction, today, in front of the Exchange, at forty-three cents.

LOUISVILLE, July 28.—The proposed change of gauge of the Louisville and Cincinnati Short Line Road is postponed till August 13. The narrow gauge rolling stock could not be got from the East sooner. The road will, when the change is made, conform to the gauge of Northern connections, making a through line from Louisville to the Eastern cities without change of cars for freight or passengers.

NEW ORLEANS, July 28.—The election of delegates to the Republican State Convention, which meets here on the 9th of August, is progressing throughout the parishes. Lively encounters occur between the Dunn and Warmouth factions. It is indicated that a bitter struggle will be had over the nominations. A meeting to-night at the Mechanics' Institute will endorse Governor Warmouth and his administration of the State government. Disorders are expected.

Custom house officials assert that receipts during the last month were greater than any preceding June for ten years; while expenses are two per cent. less.

Sampson Bidolph Robinson, instructor in book-keeping and librarian of the Louisiana State University, is dead.

THREATENED BADLY BY HIS BROTHER.—The following scene occurred at a wedding recently, not 1,000 miles from this city. The bridegroom was twenty years of age and the bride fifteen. The happy groom had a younger brother, about sixteen years of age, present at the wedding. The ceremony commenced, and just as the minister asked if any one present knew cause why the couple before him should not be joined together, young Bad commenced to weep loudly and violently. The man of God paused, the young bride prospective blushed and trembled with embarrassment, the bridegroom turned pale and looked confused, the assembled party were consternation struck, and the father of the weeping boy seized him and demanded the cause of his strange conduct. Amid sobs and tears and divers shakes, he blurted out, "Brother has treated me badly. She ought to have been mine; I loved her first, and she loved me before she did him." The old "parient" jerked the weeping, heart-broken boy out of the room, threatening hickories by the dozen; whilst, after some time in restoring equilibrium, the ceremony went on.

THE AMAZONS.—An English surgeon in the service of the Commune writes respecting its last hours as follows: "Just as the Nationals were retreating, a battalion of women came up the street at a trot, and, with cries of 'Vive la Commune,' began firing. They were armed with the Snyder rifle, and fired admirably. Many pretty looking girls were there, destined, no doubt, for far better things than killing men. They fought like devils, far better than the men, and I had the pain of seeing fifty-two shot down even when they had been surrounded by the troops and disarmed. I saw about sixty men shot at the same place as the women, at the same time."

John H. Salmon, of Albemarle County, Va., who was convicted in that County, about a year ago, of the murder of his mother and brother, and sentenced to be hung, was discharged last week under very peculiar circumstances. It seems that a writ of error had been awarded the prisoner by the judge of the circuit court, and a new trial granted. The case was then erroneously retained in the circuit court for trial, and was held over for six months, and then, when too late, was remanded to the County court, where the prisoner, by the action of the circuit court in holding the case for six months, was deprived of his right of trial. In this dilemma, the prisoner's counsel claimed his discharge, and it was granted.

A colored State Senator in Texas, a Republican of course, has recently made several quaint but very sensible speeches to his constituents. He don't like carpet-baggers. "We took them up," he says, "bob-tailed coat, tight pants, little gold-beaded cane and all, and we have fed them long enough out of our own chicken pie." "These little fellows," he added, "are too small to plow and too weak to breed"—a raucous plantation illustration. This is thought by the Newark (New Jersey) Advertiser to prove something as to the independence of the Black vote.

A post office has been established on the Guadalupe route from this place, under the name of Skull Shoals post office, and A. A. Sarraz, appointed postmaster. Union Times.

Work on the Louisiana levee will commence immediately. A full force has been organized to strengthen them in such a manner as to prevent a repetition of the Bonnet Carrre catastrophe.

The all-rail route between Washington and Richmond—the Alexandria and Fredericksburg Railroad—is being pushed forward rapidly.

Probabilities—Threats

weather will probably extend to-night Eastward to Michigan and Eastern Pennsylvania. The same is probable for Saturday in the interior of the Southern and Gulf States, and pleasant weather for New England.

BRENNHAM, TEXAS, July 28.—Henry Miller, colored, the murderer of Deboys, in April last, who was convicted by a colored jury, was hung at 1 o'clock today, in this city. 5,000 persons witnessed the execution.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28.—Negotiations recently in progress here, definitely terminated in the purchase, by the Central Pacific Railroad Company, of the California Pacific Railroad line, between Valigo and Sacramento.

NEW YORK, July 28.—The first bale of new crop Texas cotton was sold at auction, today, in front of the Exchange, at forty-three cents.

LOUISVILLE, July 28.—The proposed change of gauge of the Louisville and Cincinnati Short Line Road is postponed till August 13. The narrow gauge rolling stock could not be got from the East sooner. The road will, when the change is made, conform to the gauge of Northern connections, making a through line from Louisville to the Eastern cities without change of cars for freight or passengers.

NEW ORLEANS, July 28.—The election of delegates to the Republican State Convention, which meets here on the 9th of August, is progressing throughout the parishes. Lively encounters occur between the Dunn and Warmouth factions. It is indicated that a bitter struggle will be had over the nominations. A meeting to-night at the Mechanics' Institute will endorse Governor Warmouth and his administration of the State government. Disorders are expected.

Custom house officials assert that receipts during the last month were greater than any preceding June for ten years; while expenses are two per cent. less.

Sampson Bidolph Robinson, instructor in book-keeping and librarian of the Louisiana State University, is dead.

THREATENED BADLY BY HIS BROTHER.—The following scene occurred at a wedding recently, not 1,000 miles from this city. The bridegroom was twenty years of age and the bride fifteen. The happy groom had a younger brother, about sixteen years of age, present at the wedding. The ceremony commenced, and just as the minister asked if any one present knew cause why the couple before him should not be joined together, young Bad commenced to weep loudly and violently. The man of God paused, the young bride prospective blushed and trembled with embarrassment, the bridegroom turned pale and looked confused, the assembled party were consternation struck, and the father of the weeping boy seized him and demanded the cause of his strange conduct. Amid sobs and tears and divers shakes, he blurted out, "Brother has treated me badly. She ought to have been mine; I loved her first, and she loved me before she did him." The old "parient" jerked the weeping, heart-broken boy out of the room, threatening hickories by the dozen; whilst, after some time in restoring equilibrium, the ceremony went on.

THE AMAZONS.—An English surgeon in the service of the Commune writes respecting its last hours as follows: "Just as the Nationals were retreating, a battalion of women came up the street at a trot, and, with cries of 'Vive la Commune,' began firing. They were armed with the Snyder rifle, and fired admirably. Many pretty looking girls were there, destined, no doubt, for far better things than killing men. They fought like devils, far better than the men, and I had the pain of seeing fifty-two shot down even when they had been surrounded by the troops and disarmed. I saw about sixty men shot at the same place as the women, at the same time."

John H. Salmon, of Albemarle County, Va., who was convicted in that County, about a year ago, of the murder of his mother and brother, and sentenced to be hung, was discharged last week under very peculiar circumstances. It seems that a writ of error had been awarded the prisoner by the judge of the circuit court, and a new trial granted. The case was then erroneously retained in the circuit court for trial, and was held over for six months, and then, when too late, was remanded to the County court, where the prisoner, by the action of the circuit court in holding the case for six months, was deprived of his right of trial. In this dilemma, the prisoner's counsel claimed his discharge, and it was granted.

A colored State Senator in Texas, a Republican of course, has recently made several quaint but very sensible speeches to his constituents. He don't like carpet-baggers. "We took them up," he says, "bob-tailed coat, tight pants, little gold-beaded cane and all, and we have fed them long enough out of our own chicken pie." "These little fellows," he added, "are too small to plow and too weak to breed"—a raucous plantation illustration. This is thought by the Newark (New Jersey) Advertiser to prove something as to the independence of the Black vote.

A post office has been established on the Guadalupe route from this place, under the name of Skull Shoals post office, and A. A. Sarraz, appointed postmaster. Union Times.

Work on the Louisiana levee will commence immediately. A full force has been organized to strengthen them in such a manner as to prevent a repetition of the Bonnet Carrre catastrophe.

The all-rail route between Washington and Richmond—the Alexandria and Fredericksburg Railroad—is being pushed forward rapidly.

Probabilities—Threats

weather will probably extend to-night Eastward to Michigan and Eastern Pennsylvania. The same is probable for Saturday in the interior of the Southern and Gulf States, and pleasant weather for New England.

BRENNHAM, TEXAS, July 28.—Henry Miller, colored, the murderer of Deboys, in April last, who was convicted by a colored jury, was hung at 1 o'clock today, in this city. 5,000 persons witnessed the execution.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28.—Negotiations recently in progress here, definitely terminated in the purchase, by the Central Pacific Railroad Company, of the California Pacific Railroad line, between Valigo and Sacramento.

NEW YORK, July 28.—The first bale of new crop Texas cotton was sold at auction, today, in front of the Exchange, at forty-three cents.

LOUISVILLE, July 28.—The proposed change of gauge of the Louisville and Cincinnati Short Line Road is postponed till August 13. The narrow gauge rolling stock could not be got from the East sooner. The road will, when the change is made, conform to the gauge of Northern connections, making a through line from Louisville to the Eastern cities without change of cars for freight or passengers.

NEW ORLEANS, July 28.—The election of delegates to the Republican State Convention, which meets here on the 9th of August, is progressing throughout the parishes. Lively encounters occur between the Dunn and Warmouth factions. It is indicated that a bitter struggle will be had over the nominations. A meeting to-night at the Mechanics' Institute will endorse Governor Warmouth and his administration of the State government. Disorders are expected.

Custom house officials assert that receipts during the last month were greater than any preceding June for ten years; while expenses are two per cent. less.

Sampson Bidolph Robinson, instructor in book-keeping and librarian of the Louisiana State University, is dead.

THREATENED BADLY BY HIS BROTHER.—The following scene occurred at a wedding recently, not 1,000 miles from this city. The bridegroom was twenty years of age and the bride fifteen. The happy groom had a younger brother, about sixteen years of age, present at the wedding. The ceremony commenced, and just as the minister asked if any one present knew cause why the couple before him should not be joined together, young Bad commenced to weep loudly and violently. The man of God paused, the young bride prospective blushed and trembled with embarrassment, the bridegroom turned pale and looked confused, the assembled party were consternation struck, and the father of the weeping boy seized him and demanded the cause of his strange conduct. Amid sobs and tears and divers shakes, he blurted out, "Brother has treated me badly. She ought to have been mine; I loved her first, and she loved me before she did him." The old "parient" jerked the weeping, heart-broken boy out of the room, threatening hickories by the dozen; whilst, after some time in restoring equilibrium, the ceremony went on.

THE AMAZONS.—An English surgeon in the service of the Commune writes respecting its last hours as follows: "Just as the Nationals were retreating, a battalion of women came up the street at a trot, and, with cries of 'Vive la Commune,' began firing. They were armed with the Snyder rifle, and fired admirably. Many pretty looking girls were there, destined, no doubt, for far better things than killing men. They fought like devils, far better than the men, and I had the pain of seeing fifty-two shot down even when they had been surrounded by the troops and disarmed. I saw about sixty men shot at the same place as the women, at the same time."

John H. Salmon, of Albemarle County, Va., who was convicted in that County, about a year ago, of the murder of his mother and brother, and sentenced to be hung, was discharged last week under very peculiar circumstances. It seems that a writ of error had been awarded the prisoner by the judge of the circuit court, and a new trial granted. The case was then erroneously retained in the circuit court for trial, and was held over for six months, and then, when too late, was remanded to the County court, where the prisoner, by the action of the circuit court in holding the case for six months, was deprived of his right of trial. In this dilemma, the prisoner's counsel claimed his discharge, and it was granted.

A colored State Senator in Texas, a Republican of course, has recently made several quaint but very sensible speeches to his constituents. He don't like carpet-baggers. "We took them up," he says, "bob-tailed coat, tight pants, little gold-beaded cane and all, and we have fed them long enough out of our own chicken pie." "These little fellows," he added, "are too small to plow and too weak to breed"—a raucous plantation illustration. This is thought by the Newark (New Jersey) Advertiser to prove something as to the independence of the Black vote.

A post office has been established on the Guadalupe route from this place, under the name of Skull Shoals post office, and A. A. Sarraz, appointed postmaster. Union Times.

Work on the Louisiana levee will commence immediately. A full force has been organized to strengthen them in such a manner as to prevent a repetition of the Bonnet Carrre catastrophe.

The all-rail route between Washington and Richmond—the Alexandria and Fredericksburg Railroad—is being pushed forward rapidly.

Probabilities—Threats

weather will probably extend to-night Eastward to Michigan and Eastern Pennsylvania. The same is probable for Saturday in the interior of the Southern and Gulf States, and pleasant weather for New England.

BRENNHAM, TEXAS, July 28.—Henry Miller, colored, the murderer of Deboys, in April last, who was convicted by a colored jury, was hung at 1 o'clock today, in this city. 5,000 persons witnessed the execution.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28.—Negotiations recently in progress here, definitely terminated in the purchase, by the Central Pacific Railroad Company, of the California Pacific Railroad line, between Valigo and Sacramento.

NEW YORK, July 28.—The first bale of new crop Texas cotton was sold at auction, today, in front of the Exchange, at forty-three cents.

LOUISVILLE, July 28.—The proposed change of gauge of the Louisville and Cincinnati Short Line Road is postponed till August 13. The narrow gauge rolling stock could not be got from the East sooner. The road will, when the change is made, conform to the gauge of Northern connections, making a through line from Louisville to the Eastern cities without change of cars for freight or passengers.

NEW ORLEANS, July 28.—The election of delegates to the Republican State Convention, which meets here on the 9th of August, is progressing throughout the parishes. Lively encounters occur between the Dunn and Warmouth factions. It is indicated that a bitter struggle will be had over the nominations. A meeting to-night at the Mechanics' Institute will endorse Governor Warmouth and his administration of the State government. Disorders are expected.

Custom house officials assert that receipts during the last month were greater than any preceding June for ten years; while expenses are two per cent. less.

Sampson Bidolph Robinson, instructor in book-keeping and librarian of the Louisiana State University, is dead.

THREATENED BADLY BY HIS BROTHER.—The following scene occurred at a wedding recently, not 1,000 miles from this city. The bridegroom was twenty years of age and the bride fifteen. The happy groom had a younger brother, about sixteen years of age, present at the wedding. The ceremony commenced, and just as the minister asked if any one present knew cause why the couple before him should not be joined together, young Bad commenced to weep loudly and violently. The man of God paused, the young bride prospective blushed and trembled with embarrassment, the bridegroom turned pale and looked confused, the assembled party were consternation struck, and the father of the weeping boy seized him and demanded the cause of his strange conduct. Amid sobs and tears and divers shakes, he blurted out, "Brother has treated me badly. She ought to have been mine; I loved her first, and she loved me before she did him." The old "parient" jerked the weeping, heart-broken boy out of the room, threatening hickories by the dozen; whilst, after some time in restoring equilibrium, the ceremony went on.

THE AMAZONS.—An English surgeon in the service of the Commune writes respecting its last hours as follows: "Just as the Nationals were retreating, a battalion of women came up the street at a trot, and, with cries of 'Vive la Commune,' began firing. They were armed with the Snyder rifle, and fired admirably. Many pretty looking girls were there, destined, no doubt, for far better things than killing men. They fought like devils, far better than the men, and I had the pain of seeing fifty-two shot down even when they had been surrounded by the troops and disarmed. I saw about sixty men shot at the same place as the women, at the same time."

John H. Salmon, of Albemarle County, Va., who was convicted in that County, about a year ago, of the murder of his mother and brother, and sentenced to be hung, was discharged last week under very peculiar circumstances. It seems that a writ of error had been awarded the prisoner by the judge of the circuit court, and a new trial granted. The case was then erroneously retained in the circuit court for trial, and was held over for six months, and then, when too late, was remanded to the County court, where the prisoner, by the action of the circuit court in holding the case for six months, was deprived of his right of trial. In this dilemma, the prisoner's counsel claimed his discharge, and it was granted.

A colored State Senator in Texas, a Republican of course, has recently made several quaint but very sensible speeches to his constituents. He don't like carpet-baggers. "We took them up," he says, "bob-tailed coat, tight pants, little gold-beaded cane and all, and we have fed them long enough out of our own chicken pie." "These little fellows," he added, "are too small to plow and too weak to breed"—a raucous plantation illustration. This is thought by the Newark (New Jersey) Advertiser to prove something as to the independence of the Black vote.

A post office has been established on the Guadalupe route from this place, under the name of Skull Shoals post office, and A. A. Sarraz, appointed postmaster. Union Times.

Work on the Louisiana levee will commence immediately. A full force has been organized to strengthen them in such a manner as to prevent a repetition of the Bonnet Carrre catastrophe.

The all-rail route between Washington and Richmond—the Alexandria and Fredericksburg Railroad—is being pushed forward rapidly.

Probabilities—Threats

weather will probably extend to-night Eastward to Michigan and Eastern Pennsylvania. The same is probable for Saturday in the interior of the Southern and Gulf States, and pleasant weather for New England.

BRENNHAM, TEXAS, July 28.—Henry Miller, colored, the murderer of Deboys, in April last, who was convicted by a colored jury, was hung at 1 o'clock today, in this city. 5,000 persons witnessed the execution.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28.—Negotiations recently in progress here, definitely terminated in the purchase, by the Central Pacific Railroad Company, of the California Pacific Railroad line, between Valigo and Sacramento.

NEW YORK, July 28.—The first bale of new crop Texas cotton was sold at auction, today, in front of the Exchange, at forty-three cents.

LOUISVILLE, July 28.—The proposed change of gauge of the Louisville and Cincinnati Short Line Road is postponed till August 13. The narrow gauge rolling stock could not be got from the East sooner. The road will, when the change is made, conform to the gauge of Northern connections, making a through line from Louisville to the Eastern cities without change of cars for freight or passengers.

NEW ORLEANS, July 28.—The election of delegates to the Republican State Convention, which meets here on the 9th of August, is progressing throughout the parishes. Lively encounters occur between the Dunn and Warmouth factions. It is indicated that a bitter struggle will be had over the nominations. A meeting to-night at the Mechanics' Institute will endorse Governor Warmouth and his administration of the State government. Disorders are expected.

Custom house officials assert that receipts during the last month were greater than any preceding June for ten years; while expenses are two per cent. less.

Sampson Bidolph Robinson, instructor in book-keeping and librarian of the Louisiana State University, is dead.

THREATENED BADLY BY HIS BROTHER.—The following scene occurred at a wedding recently, not 1,000 miles from this city. The bridegroom was twenty years of age and the bride fifteen. The happy groom had a younger brother, about sixteen years of age, present at the wedding. The ceremony commenced, and just as the minister asked if any one present knew cause why the couple before him should not be joined together, young Bad commenced to weep loudly and violently. The man of God paused, the young bride prospective blushed and trembled with embarrassment, the bridegroom turned pale and looked confused, the assembled party were consternation struck, and the father of the weeping boy seized him and demanded the cause of his strange conduct. Amid sobs and tears and divers shakes, he blurted out, "Brother has treated me badly. She ought to have been mine; I loved her first, and she loved me before she did him." The old "parient" jerked the weeping, heart-broken boy out of the room, threatening hickories by the dozen; whilst, after some time in restoring equilibrium, the ceremony went on.

THE AMAZONS.—An English surgeon in the service of the Commune writes respecting its last hours as follows: "Just as the Nationals were retreating, a battalion of women came up the street at a trot, and, with cries of 'Vive la Commune,' began firing. They were armed with the Snyder rifle, and fired admirably. Many pretty looking girls were there, destined, no doubt, for far better things than killing men. They fought like devils, far better than the men, and I had the pain of seeing fifty-two shot down even when they had been surrounded by the troops and disarmed. I saw about sixty men shot at the same place as the women, at the same time."

John H. Salmon, of Albemarle County, Va., who was convicted in that County, about a year ago, of the murder of his mother and brother, and sentenced to be hung, was discharged last week under very peculiar circumstances. It seems that a writ of error had been awarded the prisoner by the judge of the circuit court, and a new trial granted. The case was then erroneously retained in the circuit court for trial, and was held over for six months, and then, when too late, was remanded to the County court, where the prisoner, by the action of the circuit court in holding the case for six months, was deprived of his right of trial. In this dilemma, the prisoner's counsel claimed his discharge, and it was granted.

A colored State Senator in Texas, a Republican of course, has recently made several quaint but very sensible speeches to his constituents. He don't like carpet-baggers. "We took them up," he says, "bob-tailed coat, tight pants, little gold-beaded cane and all, and we have fed them long enough out of our own chicken pie." "These little fellows," he added, "are too small to plow and too weak to breed"—a raucous plantation illustration. This is thought by the Newark (New Jersey) Advertiser to prove something as to the independence of the Black vote.

A post office has been established on the Guadalupe route from this place, under the name of Skull Shoals post office, and A. A. Sarraz, appointed postmaster. Union Times.

Work on the Louisiana levee will commence immediately. A full force has been organized to strengthen them in such a manner as to prevent a repetition of the Bonnet Carrre catastrophe.

The all-rail route between Washington and Richmond—the Alexandria and Fredericksburg Railroad—is being pushed forward rapidly.

Probabilities—Threats

weather will probably extend to-night Eastward to Michigan and Eastern Pennsylvania. The same is probable for Saturday in the interior of the Southern and Gulf States, and pleasant weather for New England.

BRENNHAM, TEXAS, July 28.—Henry Miller, colored, the murderer of Deboys, in April last, who was convicted by a colored jury, was hung at 1 o'clock today, in this city. 5,000 persons witnessed the execution.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28.—Negotiations recently in progress here, definitely terminated in the purchase, by the Central Pacific Railroad Company, of the California Pacific Railroad line, between Valigo and Sacramento.

NEW YORK, July 28.—The first bale of new crop Texas cotton was sold at auction, today, in front of the Exchange, at forty-three cents.

LOUISVILLE, July 28.—The proposed change of gauge of the Louisville and Cincinnati Short Line Road is postponed till August 13. The narrow gauge rolling stock could not be got from the East sooner. The road will, when the change is made, conform to the gauge of Northern connections, making a through line from Louisville to the Eastern cities without change of cars for freight or passengers.

NEW ORLEANS, July 28.—The election of delegates to the Republican State Convention, which meets here on the 9th of August, is progressing throughout the parishes. Lively encounters occur between the Dunn and Warmouth factions. It is indicated that a bitter struggle will be had over the nominations. A meeting to-night at the Mechanics' Institute will endorse Governor Warmouth and his administration of the State government. Disorders are expected.

Custom house officials assert that receipts during the last month were greater than any preceding June for ten years; while expenses are two per cent. less.

Sampson Bidolph Robinson, instructor in book-keeping and librarian of the Louisiana State University, is dead.

THREATENED BADLY BY HIS BROTHER.—The following scene occurred at a wedding recently, not 1,000 miles from this city. The bridegroom was twenty years of age and the bride fifteen. The happy groom had a younger brother, about sixteen years of age, present at the wedding. The ceremony commenced, and just as the minister asked if any one present knew cause why the couple before him should not be joined together, young Bad commenced to weep loudly and violently. The man of God paused, the young bride prospective blushed and trembled with embarrassment, the bridegroom turned pale and looked confused, the assembled party were consternation struck, and the father of the weeping boy seized him and demanded the cause of his strange conduct. Amid sobs and tears and divers shakes, he blurted out, "Brother has treated me badly. She ought to have been mine; I loved her first, and she loved me before she did him." The old "